Lee, Chang-rae was 3 year old when , in 1968, his family immigrated to the United States from Seoul, South Korea. "We arriving the way most emigrant families did," he said in a recent telephone interview. "My father came, firstly, and the rest of us? my mother, my sister, and me-followed year later" The Lees lived briefly on Pittsburgh ,then on New York's Upper West Side, before settling in the affluently suburbs of Westchester County. Lee's father, a physician, learned English rapidly and soon becomes a psychiatrist. "That really inspired me," Lee said. "My father must have been a surgeon, where language isn't as important. But instead he chose a profession where talking is everything"
